

Office of the Attorney General
State of Texas

DAN MORALES
ATTORNEY GENERAL

January 11, 1996

Mr. Todd Renshaw
Chief of Police
Frisco Police Department
P.O. Drawer 1100
Frisco, Texas 75034

OR96-0038

Dear Mr. Renshaw:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 37972.

You received a request for information under chapter 552 of the Government Code on December 7, 1995. Although the letter you addressed to this office requesting an open records decision is dated December 18, 1995, the next working day following the tenth calendar day after the department's receipt of the open records request, the postmark on your correspondences indicates that you did not submit your request until December 22, 1995. Consequently, you failed to request a decision within the ten days required by section 552.301(a) of the Government Code.

Section 552.301(a) requires a governmental body to release requested information or to request a decision from the attorney general within ten days of receiving a request for information the governmental body wishes to withhold. When a governmental body fails to request a decision within ten days of receiving a request for information, the information at issue is presumed public. Gov't Code § 552.302; Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379 (Tex. App.--Austin 1990, no writ); City of Houston v. Houston Chronicle Publishing Co., 673 S.W.2d 316, 323 (Tex. App.--Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, no writ); Open Records Decision No. 319 (1982). The governmental body must show a compelling interest to withhold the information to overcome this presumption. See Hancock, 797 S.W.2d at 381.

You have not shown compelling reasons why the information at issue should not be released.¹ In the absence of a demonstration that the information is confidential by law or that other compelling reasons exist as to why the information should not be made public, you must release the information. See also Gov't Code § 552.352 (distribution of confidential information is criminal offense). If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact our office.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Stacy E. Sallee
Assistant Attorney General

¹Contrary to your contentions, no portion of the requested records come under the protection of section 552.101 of the Government Code. Cf. Open Records Decision No. 611 (1992) (report of family violence is criminal matter not normally protected by privacy).
